ANNUAL FAIR WILL BE CELEBRATED IN GYM FRIDAY NIGHT

Y. W. C. A. Announces Varied Bill of Entertainment For Evening

DANCING TO BE ONE OF FEATURES OF EVENING

Sororities Cooperate by Managing Feature Booths to Raise Y. W. Funds.

Friday night the Y. W. C. A. Annual County Fair will be held in the gymnasium. Festivities will continue from 8 until 12 o'clock. With Helen Dix in charge of the evening's events, fraternities and sororities are cooperating with the Y. W. C. A. to produce the best fair ever.

Dancing, under the supervision of Elsie Talbert, is only one of the forms of entertainment offered. Ten cents a dance is the price per couple. A special prize will be given to the winners of a novelty dance, the exact nature of which will be announced Friday night. Sigma Alpha Epsilon is furnishing a dance stunt with the Hooper boys as performers.

Fortune Telling.
Many unique booths, each managed by a sorority, will line the walls. All sorority booths except two are supplying food—food of any kind that may be asked for. Hot dogs, candy, cake, ice cream, cider, nuts, and doughnuts are among the several varieties aimed to tempt the palates of the visitors. Two sororities are presenting original booths, which will be great surprises.

The Co-Operative Store at Twenty-first and H streets, is joining forces for the evening with the Y. W. C. A. and selling pennants, crests, stickers, fraternity banners in the G. W. U. booth.

Chief of the decorators is Kitty Ruth, who is being aided by Sigma Nu and Theta Upsilon Omega in transforming the gymnasium into an old-time background for a modern county fair.

A real gypsy is pledged to be on hand throughout the evening. The G. W. Club is preparing a side show, which is left a secret. A game of skill akin to that played upon the roulette wheel is expected to be quite popular. It is under the direct auspices of the Y. W. C. A. girls, and under the indirect auspices of Deans Henning, Hodgkins, and Rose.

VODVIL TRYOUTS TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Committee Announces Gym Stage Will Be Available for Rehearsals.

Plans for the Fourth Annual Vodvil are moving forward rapidly, according to the managing committee, composed of Edward B. Moulton, manager; C. L. Parker, jr., in charge of fraternity acts; and Eryntrude Valden in charge of sorority acts.

There will be a different show on each of the nights, November 23 and 24, and both shows promise to be better than any before. Reserved seats, on sale at the treasurer's office, are going rapidly, according to reports.

The committee announces that the gymnasium, with the stage set up, will be available from the night of November 18, on. The first tryouts are to be held Thursday, November 18, at 8 p. m., in the gymnasium. The committee is desirous of getting in touch with all the acts, in order to arrange a time schedule for the first and subsequent tryouts.

3 OF FACULTY RETURN AFTER SICK ABSENCES

Dean Henning and Professor Erwin will return soon to their classes after several weeks of illness. The former is recovering successfully. He expects to resume his work at the University next week.

Professor Erwin of the mathematics department, is recovering slowly from his recent illness. He is not expected to be back, however, for several weeks.

Dr. A. Anderson, medical interne at the George Washington University Hospital, has been ill for the past few days. It is rumored that her complete recovery will require rest and freedom from responsibility for several months. S. Boyd has been appointed relief interne.

WANDERING GREEKS HOLD FIRST MEETING

Dance to Be Held Soon According to Plan.

Last Friday evening about 25 men, representatives of some fifteen national fraternities, attended the first meeting this year of the Wandering Greeks. Several new members were present.

The custom of having dinner meetings, which are held once a month, will be continued this year. Plans are now being made for a dance which is to be held soon.

At the election of this year's officers, which took place last spring, Ellis Bever was named president, and Emerson Willey secretary and treasurer.

FRAT COURT SET APPROACHES END

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Kappa Sigma Probably in Finals

BOTH TEAMS UNDEFEATED

Sigma Nu and Theta Upsilon Omega Apparently Runners-up In Leagues.

By SHERMAN E. JOHNSON.

Kappa Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, both undefeated, will battle for the interfraternity cup, it seemed quite certain after the series of games last week. Only Sigma Phi Epsilon stood in the way of the victorious Kappa Sigs at the time of writing, and the Kappa Sigs will not only have to be beaten, but Sigma Nu must beat Sigma Chi in order to even up the league.

In the second league, Sigma Alpha Epsilon has only Theta Delta Chi to defeat, and the hope is very strongly in favor of the Sig Alphas.

Sigma Phi Epsilon and Acacia started out last Monday with a game in which the Acacia had the Sig Eps frankly worried in the first half. The half ended with S. P. E. leading 3 to 1, neither side having scored a field goal. In the second half Sigma Phi Epsilon scored easily, winning 19 to 1. Theta Upsilon Omega the same evening beat Phi Sigma Kappa 23 to 17, in a game in which the Phi Sigs entered with a slight edge. Phi Sigma Kappa had held Sigma Alpha Epsilon to a 18 to 10 score the previous week, and counted on winning. It was anybody's game from the start.

T. U. O. Beats Phi Sigs.
The Theta Upsilon led 10 to 9 at the half. Then the Phi Sigs ran up a three point lead. T. U. O. scored again, and the third quarter ended with the Phi Sigs one point ahead. Pomeroy, of the Theta Upsilon, got loose in the last quarter, and scored four field goals. He was high point scorer, making fifteen of the twenty-three points, and is one of the most promising players the series has uncovered. Loffer and Gary did most of the scoring for Phi Sigma Kappa.

Sigma Nu won from Kappa Alpha, 48 to 11 Tuesday night, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon from Delta Tau Delta, 22 to 7, in games which furnished few thrills. Knapp, of S. A. E., has been (Continued on page 4.)

MASONIC CLUB TO HOLD ENTERTAINMENT TODAY

The Masonic Club has planned a general program of entertainment at their meeting to be held in the lounge room of Stockton Hall of the University Law School tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

The feature of the program, according to B. A. Whitney, president of the club, will be Mr. C. C. Bennett, of the Bureau of Identification, War Department, who will lecture on "The Methods of Personal Identification in the United States Army." President Whitney is making every effort to obtain a slide lantern, which is an essential for Mr. Bennett's lecture.

Several other speakers are included in the evening's program. A short debate on the subject of capital punishment will also be held. If it is impossible to obtain a slide lantern for Mr. Bennett's lecture, the club plans to hold a public forum at which anyone who desires will be permitted to speak on some subject.

Part of the meeting, according to B. A. Whitney, will be devoted to important business, and he has asked the Hatchet to urge all old members of the club to attend. Masons and friends of the club are also invited, he announced.

ENGINEERING ELECTIONS

COIF ORDER TO BE INSTALLED HERE

Ceremony Will Take Place at Banquet on Evening of November 18

BENCHERS ARE HONORED

National President of Order Will Come from Yale to Present Charter.

Installation of George Washington chapter, Order of the Coif, and initiation of members, will take place at a banquet to be held at the University Club, on Thursday evening, November 18, at 8:15 o'clock.

Professor Walter Wheeler Cook, the National President of the Order, is coming down from Yale University to present the charter to the George Washington chapter. President Lewis of George Washington, will be guest of honor upon the occasion of the presentation. President Lewis will be the only person attending the banquet who is not a member of the Coif.

The Benchers, local honorary legal fraternity, has had a signal tribute paid to its excellent attainments in the legal field, by the acceptance of its petition to the Order of the Coif, national organization. The Benchers was formed in 1923 by members of the Law School faculty and students maintaining an "A" average throughout the law course. It was officially elected to membership in the Coif last July.

The Order of the Coif derives its name from a small, close-fitting silk cap worn by sergeants-at-law, during the period of the Norman Conquest. The insignia of the fraternity is a gold key with the words, "Order of the Coif," and the raised impression of a sergeant-at-law with left profile showing, and wearing wig and coif.

The charter members of the George Washington chapter of the Coif, who will be initiated, are all members of the Law School faculty. They are: William Cabell, Van Vleet, A. B., LL.B., S. J. D.; Walter Collins Clephane, LL.M.; Edwin Charles Brandenburg, LL.M.; John Paul Earnest, A. M., LL.M.; Wendell Phillips Stafford, A. M., LL. D.; Litt. D.; John Wilmer Latimer, LL.B.; Charles Sager Collier, A. B., LL.B.; Hector Galloway Spaulding, A. B., LL.B., S. J. D.; Henry White Edgerton, A. B., LL.B.; Alvin Eleazar Evans, Ph. D., J. D.; Earl Casper Arnold, A. B., LL.B.; Walter Lewis Moll, A. B., LL.B., S. J. D.; Lloyd Hall Sutton, S. B., LL.B., and William T. Fryer.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the installation consists of Prof. Charles S. Collier, chairman, Miss Helen Newman, and Prof. Hector G. Spaulding.

LEONARD HALL SPEAKS TO COLUMBIAN WOMEN

"While our women are achieving increasing success on the American stage our men are drifting away from this art," Leonard Hall, dramatic critic of the Daily News, declared Tuesday, November 2, in an address to the Columbian Women of George Washington University.

Pointing out the fading interest of American men in the legitimate stage, Mr. Hall deplored the condition, "British actors are playing opposite our American actresses," he said.

Mrs. Henry Gratton Doyle presided at the meeting.

TALKS ON PIRATES.

Pirates figured in a talk given by Mrs. Charles Wood on her travels in China, presented in Assembly, Monday, October 1. Mrs. Wood's talk was illustrated by slides showing scenes in China.

CHAPEL ADDRESS ON WALTER CAMP

Dr. Anson P. Stokes, Once Yale Secretary, Talks on Life of Coach

MEMORIAL FUND RAISED

Men's and Women's G. W. Clubs Sell Varied Articles at Ursinus Game.

Dr. Anson Phelps Stokes, former secretary of Yale University, spoke in chapel last Wednesday on the life of Walter Camp, whom he knew intimately for 30 years. "Walter Camp," began Dr. Stokes, "was born in 1859 in New-Haven, Connecticut. His father was a high school principal for many years in that town."

"Camp attended Yale University four years as an undergraduate and two years as a graduate. He concluded his education for a three-year medical course, but to learn all he could concerning the proper care of the body."

"Dr. Stokes emphasized the clean, fine character displayed by Camp during his six years participation in athletics. He was exceptional in that he made the football team in his freshman year. For the last two years, he was captain of the team. He also played on the baseball nine and was a member of the first intercollegiate tennis team."

Stood for Fair Play.

"Camp," continued Dr. Stokes, "not only stood for clean, fair play, but also for the physical fitness of every man playing the game. He had five characteristics," concluded Dr. Stokes, "they were: his fine, clean living, his physical well-being, his high ideal of sportsmanship, his clean, independent thinking and his belief in public service. Through his whole life he exemplified each one."

Miss Ella April, president of the Women's G. W. Club and Harold Young, president of the Men's Club also spoke in chapel concerning the plans of the two clubs for raising memorial funds at the game with Ursinus College. Two representatives from each sorority lead by Miss April sold food, programs, and chrysanthemums, according to the plan announced in chapel on Wednesday. The men sold tickets and acted as ushers. The entire profits were given over to the Walter Camp Memorial fund.

Girl Debaters Point For Cornell Meet

Ohio Wesleyan, Bucknell, and West Virginia University on Tentative Schedule.

Girl debaters of George Washington are now making rapid strides toward perfection in preparing for the debate with Cornell, which is to take place on the night of November 19. The team, which was selected last week, consists of Fannie Wayman, Lillian Trimble Rhodes, and Ruth Newburn, with Alice Nesbit as alternate.

Plans are also under way for debates with Ohio Wesleyan University, Bucknell, and perhaps with the University of West Virginia. The George Washington debaters are to go to Ohio Wesleyan probably late in the season and they will also have a return engagement with the Buckeye debaters here. The subject for these debates will be: "Resolved, that the United States should have a uniform divorce law."

PROF. CROISSANT SPEAKS.

Professor Croissant, who has been striving for the establishment of a foreign service school at G. W., spoke on that subject before the National Foreign Service convention at Philadelphia, on Friday, November 5.

NOMINATIONS MADE FOR JUNIOR OFFICERS

To Be Voted on by Ballot Wednesday, November 10.

Juniors of Columbian College met at Corcoran Hall to nominate class officers, Thursday night.

The following were nominated: president, Kenneth Abrams and Smith W. Brookhart, jr. vice president, Betty Bradenburgh and Anne McCorkle; secretary, Virginia Blackstone and Ruth Newburn; treasurer, Alice Ranck and Robert Williams; sergeant-at-arms, Morris Larson and George Muth.

Election by the ballot box system will take place Wednesday, November 10.

R. M. C. NEXT ON COLONIALS' LIST

Visitors to Bring Light, But Clever, Combination Here For Game

G. W. SHOULD WIN EASILY

Crum Preparing Team for Annual Struggle with Catholic University Thanksgiving Day.

By KING PRENDER.

Randolph-Macon's fighting football team from Ashland, Virginia, is working strenuously in preparation for its battle with the smooth-working George Washington Colonials at Central Stadium this Saturday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

The visitors will present a light but clever combination with McLemore, Fraley, quarterbacks; Berger, Lewis, Selby, halves; and Derriekson, line-plunging full back on the offense. Dorey, alert wingman, and Anthony, hefty guard, will furnish the greatest obstacles in the Colonials' way.

Coach Crum's men are taking it easy after their struggle with Ursinus last Saturday. The Colonials do not expect much opposition from the Ashlanders, but they are not letting up on their training, especially with the Catholic University game only two weeks off.

Comparative Strength.
Comparative strength of the two teams may be gauged by the scores they made against the powerful William and Mary combination this season.

The Indians romped over the Yellow Jackets, gaining at will, made five touchdowns and as many extra points, and held their opponents scoreless.

The Colonials gave William and Mary the scare of a lifetime when they held the Southern institution to fourteen points on Carey Field recently. The Crummen also were unable to penetrate the opposition's defense. Two weeks ago the Ashland lads defeated Bridgewater College 35 to 0, but they received a 54 to 0 drubbing at the hands of the Johns Hopkins Blue Jays last Saturday.

Randolph-Macon will probably follow the end-running and line-plunging game while the Colonials will again resort to the overhead attack.

Last year the local institution ran rough-shod over the Ashlanders, piling up a 54 to 7 score.

DEBATERS PREP FOR TILT WITH CAMBRIDGE

British Team Now Touring New England; Will Go to Canada Before Coming Here.

The Cambridge University team, which will debate George Washington on Monday, November 29, is now debating in New England. It will debate in Canada for the next few weeks, after which it will meet George Washington and Princeton before sailing for England. The team is composed of Mr. H. G. G. Herklotz, Trinity College; Mr. A. L. Hutchison, Christ's College, and Mr. W. C. Fordham, Magdalene College. The George Washington team, which will oppose Cambridge, Mr. J. R. Kirkland, Mr. W. W. Williamson, and Mr. John T. Trimble, is now busily preparing for the debate.

On Tuesday, November 2, the team to represent George Washington on its Southern tour was selected by the coach, Mr. Farnham. The men selected were E. A. Gallagher, captain, G. Sanders, and W. E. Weigle, alternate. Roanoke College, Emory and Henry, Davidson, Duke, North Carolina, Hampden-Sidney, and Randolph-Macon are the schools which will be met on this trip.

There will also be a number of debates here before Christmas. This will be the first time in a number of years that George Washington has begun the season before Christmas.

FRESHMAN HYGIENE

Freshman hygiene class will meet in Room 29 instead of Room 1, Corcoran Hall, every Saturday morning. All freshmen are required to take this work.

URSINUS SET BACK BY G. W. U. ELEVEN IN SATURDAY FRAY

Colonials Gain 412 Yards During Contest But Only Win 6 to 3

CONTEST DESIGNATED AS WALTER CAMP GAME

U. S. Marine Guard Parades Colors and Bugle Sounds Taps Before Contest Opens.

The George Washington University football eleven defeated the Ursinus College team by a score of 6 to 3 in a hard fought game at the Clark Griffith Stadium last Saturday. The contest was designated as the Walter Camp Memorial game and a portion of the receipts from the crowd of nearly four thousand people went as George Washington University's portion of the nationwide drive to raise funds to build a memorial gateway to the man who did so much for college football, to be constructed at the football plant of his own alma mater, the Yale Bowl.

Just before the game started and with the two teams lined up ready for the referee's whistle, a U. S. Marine color guard marched to the center of the gridiron and a Marine bugler sounded taps. Every person present, including the members of both teams, stood at attention with uncovered heads during the ceremony.

The game was featured by a brilliant forward passing attack and marred by frequent fumbles on the part of Coach Crum's Colonials. For the invaders, the punting of quarterback Moyer stood out, the sturdy left foot of that individual being responsible for some sensational kicking that got the Ursinus team out of difficult positions on more than one occasion. His kicking was not only consistent, but his punts seemed to take a most peculiar spin and slant, making them extremely hard to judge and handle.

Great Passing Game.

Seldom has such a passing game as the Crummen put on for the benefit of the crowd Saturday been seen in this vicinity. With Captain Sapp at the forwarding end of most of the heaves, the Hatchettes had the visitors fairly bewildered under the aerial shower they encountered.

Twenty-three passes were thrown by the Colonial backs during the fracas and 14 of them were completed for a total gain of 232 yards. In the first half the Crumites tossed 11 passes, 7 of which were completed, 3 aided to find a receiver, and one was intercepted, for a total gain of 105 yards. Twelve aerial flips were tossed in the second portion of the game, 7 being completed, 4 falling, and one being intercepted. The total gain in this half by the aerial route was 127 yards. (Continued on page 3)

TAPS FOR CAMP ARE SOUNDED BY MARINE

One of the Most Impressive Sights Ever Witnessed Here Occurred At Saturday Game

One of the most impressive sights that has been witnessed at a local football game occurred Saturday afternoon at the Griffith Stadium just before the referee's whistle blew for the start of the George Washington-Ursinus game.

The crowd, which had been filing into the stands for an hour, was a hilarious one; a crowd which was out for an afternoon's fun. Jerry Sickler, the cheerleader, and his two aides were warming up in preparation for the impending fray. Notes of popular songs floated over the field as the band added its bit to the noise and confusion. Dusky peanut and popcorn vendors piled a busy trade among the spectators.

Stand at Attention

When the tumult was at its height, and the players were lined up for the opening kickoff, a Marine Corps color guard entered the stadium. No sooner had the Marines passed through the gate leading on to the field than a sudden transformation took place. A hush fell over the stands. The spectators rose in unison. As the colors marched between the two ranks of players, every man bared his head. Women stood at attention. Members of the teams doffed their headgear. Silence was complete.

The clear notes of Taps rang throughout the stadium as a tribute to the memory of Walter Camp.

The sale of programs and flowers was carried on by sorority girls and members of the Women's G. W. Club. This is the first time that a program for a football game has been printed by the University.

The Girls' G. W. Club got up the programs, and they were voted a great success by the fans. Over $100 was realized from the sale of the chrysanthemums and programs. The flowers added a novel touch of color to the crowd.

The gate receipts of the game are being checked and a certain portion will go toward building the Walter Camp Memorial at Yale University.

POLITICS VS. PROCTORS

Buzzing whispers, shifty glances, broad smiles to some, frosty looks to others, long conversations from convenient spots where one can be heard and not seen, sharp asides interrupting the sessions when Miss Co-ed goes over to talk with Mr. Ed. Elections. Snatches of "Oh, let's see if they get together" and "Oh dear, they may go the other way but we must bring the bunch around. We'll have to put one of their men in as Sergeant-at-arms. Too bad, but we'll lose if we don't."—Politics.

And when the votes were cast and the count was made it was found that about one-third of them had to be thrown out for one reason or another. This has, in itself, been discussed before, but it reaches farther than the name of "shady politics." It correlates directly with the much-talked-about proctor system. How can we be trusted whole-heartedly in examinations when a spirit of this kind reigns on the campus? The whole system is wrong psychologically, for when one is being watched one is on guard and at attention to find the tiniest loop-hole available. And yet who can deny that we do not deserve the watching when this sort of thing is going on now? The vicious circle. But this spirit is at the bottom of it all and until this unsound foundation can be removed it is obvious where the blame should lie. And yet we object!

WORKING ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

A short time ago the Hatchet printed an editorial advocating the elimination, or at least the betterment, of the crowding which occurs every day in Corcoran Hall between classes, especially between 10:00 and 10:05 in the morning, and between 6:00 and 6:05 in the evening.

Following this editorial the Dean of the University sent a circular letter to all professors teaching evening classes, requesting that they ask their classes to use the back stairway and door for exit and the front stairway and doors for entrance to the upper classrooms. This was but a suggestion, however, and a week after its announcement has seen no decided change for the better. The suggestion is a good one and is probably the best that could be made, but if it is not enforced it is of utterly no value. We make the suggestion that signs be made directing the students to use the front steps for entrance and back steps for exit on ALL occasions. This will accustom the student body to this method and it should soon work smoothly.

If, however, it is found after a fair trial that the students are still disregarding the traffic signs, we suggest that some method of enforcement be invoked, possibly in the form of a student traffic cop. If these suggestions are followed up and the individual students would KEEP MOVING, we would soon find it possible, nay, easy, to get to class on time, plus our hat and our dignity, and minus the dirty look from the prof.

GIRLS' TENNIS AND HOCKEY

Recent discussions on the campus disclose the fact that the Buff and Blue racquet wielders match up to the finest in the country. The statement is proven by the fact that they came out of last season undefeated. And yet very few people knew of the crack tennis team or that they had gone through with flying colors wherever they played; and the appropriation for net teams is small compared to several others.

Now hockey, a sport made up especially of amateurs and wherein a large number of girls are being put into play, is forging to the front with rapid strides. There is talk of making it a major letter sport in order to put it on a par with other girl athletics.

It is interesting to notice the new method of the handling of sports creeping in. The old idea of a few specialized and highly trained students making up a team and invading other schools seems to be on the wane. In its place has stepped the theory that athletics must be for everyone and not for a small team with the rest of the students merely onlookers. We wonder which side will win.

Katherine Boykin entertained about 50 masqueraders, most of whom were G. W.-ites, at a Halloween dance on Monday, November 1.

Alpha Delta Theta entertained this time at the Sycamore Island clubhouse, where dancing and dainties were enjoyed.

The gallery of the Washington Auditorium has been consistently checked with G. W.-ites during Robert Mantell's and Genevieve Hamper's Shakespearean performances, the past week. Since not all of them were devotees of English 32, and considering the alluring and expensive entertainment at several other theaters, we promptly jot this down for reference when some Antidivian scoffer will try to reveal statistics on the actual extra-curriculum pursuits of our students.

Alpha chapter, of George Washington University, and Gamma chapter, of Georgetown University, of Phi Alpha fraternity held a dance at their joint chapter house, 1872 California street, northwest, November 7. Representatives from the University of Maryland and Johns Hopkins chapters attended.

Gamma Beta Pi was hostess at a luncheon last Wednesday. Several alumnae and rushers were present.

Mataleg Lake motored to Baltimore Saturday and while there visited Ruth Gregory Wheeler.

The "Styx" announces the pledging of William Albrecht, William Fleming, Clem Denicke, and John Williamson last Wednesday evening at the home of Kenneth Years.

Kappa Delta entertained at luncheon at the chapter house last Friday.

Corcoran Hall was appropriately decorated for the Nurses' Halloween dance, held on the night of Saturday, October 30. Many features, including prizes for the best costumes, exhibition dances and novel refreshments added to the enjoyment of the evening. Dean and Mrs. Borden were among the guests.

Sigma Kappa entertained at a formal rush dance held at Brooke Tea House last Thursday. Morse Allen presented a wooden soldier dance and an eccentric soft-shoe Charleston. Kenneth Mulford's Naomi Band furnished the jazz for the evening.

Maxine Alverson, Anne McCorkle, and Mari Mohart are part of the growing G. W. caravan that makes its way over to Annapolis nearly every week-end.

Miss Jones recently entertained the Phi Mu alumna at her home in Chevy Chase.

The active and graduate members of the Theta Delta Chi commemorated the 79th anniversary of the founding of the fraternity at a banquet on October 29. All the other charges of the fraternity in this country and Canada held similar celebrations.

Phi Mu held bridges in the rooms on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Those present were members of the active chapter and rushers.

The Delta Pi chapter of the Sigma Nu fraternity observed its annual Memorial day at the evening services of the Foundry Methodist Church on Sunday, November 7. About 75 members and their friends gathered at the chapter house, 1733 N street, northwest, before the service. Rev. Frederick Brown Harris addressed the congregation.

Miss Olive Chace was hostess at a Halloween party to the members of Delta Zeta at her home in Chevy Chase on October 30th.

Margaret Tatum was one of the hearty rooters for Michigan at the Michigan-Navy game.

Mrs. Kephart, big sister of Alpha Delta chapter, returned home Wednesday, from California, where she has been visiting since the Delta Zeta Convention there in July.

Miss Bettie Griffith was hostess at a bridge party to several members of Delta Zeta and their friends.

Alpha Sigma Theta entertained a number of rushers at a card party at the home of Miss Gertrude Small on November the fifth. Delightful refreshments were served.

Marceline Gray entertained at tea on Sunday in honor of Virginia Pate, whose marriage to E. Hilliard Macomber is announced for November the twenty-sixth.

Alpha Delta Pi had a rush dance at the Grace Dodge Hut on last Wednesday. With Ken Mulford's Naomi Band furnishing the music and lots of stags it had to be a success.

Among the G. W. U. students attending the Michigan-Navy game last Saturday were Barbara Miller, Anita Smith, Virginia May and Marian Bates.

S. A. E.'s gay Halloween celebration was held in the form of a Bohemian ball last Monday, November 1, at the chapter house on Sixteenth street.

Theta Delta Chi was host at a masquerade dance on Saturday, October 30, at its new home, 1824 Eye street. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, and weird Halloween figures. Prof. and Mrs. Henry Gratton Doyle were the chaperones.

Acacia announces the pledging of Robert E. Lee, Wallace P. Lynn, Arthur P. Hewlett.

Kappa Sigma celebrated Halloween with a costume dance on Friday, October 29, at the chapter house. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Lodge acted as chaperones. The Naomi Band, composed of G. W. students furnished syncopation for the evening.

Joseph Baylor and John Sanders have recently been pledged to Sigma Chi.

Several Kappa Sig members of the Michigan football team dropped in on the G. W. chapter when they were here for the Navy-Michigan game. Col. Birdseye, alumni advisor, called on the chapter during the week.

Kappa Sigma fraternity has announced the pledging of John Reynolds Farley III.

Rowland Lyon complained of hang-nails in the Hatchet Office last Saturday morning. When asked why he did not cut them off, he replied that his mother had gone away and taken the manicuring scissors with her. Are there any stray manicurists who are looking for practice on Rowland's artistic hands?

Hurd Willett looked fast when he ran in the event at Griffith Stadium Saturday. Granted. He was fast, too. Granted. But not so fast as one enterprising Hatchet reporter had it when he turned in the story. He had Willett covering three miles, the distance, in 3 minutes, 11.5 seconds. Fast!

It was only a slip of the typewriter, but it had strange connotations. Diplomatic entanglements might even have resulted. Another Hatchet reporter, trying to say "super-state," spoke of the League of Nations as a "super-state."

We pity the poor student who owns the knife found at the University Cafeteria. The finder has inserted an ad reading, "Owner may recover by describing knife to Miss E. P. Wild, Room 27, Corcoran Hall, on Monday."

Wednesday or Friday, from 5 to 7 o'clock." Two hours of oral description! My! Suppose one lost an automobile!

At Dr. Brigham's studio tea Sunday, Betty Bradford told about some of her experiences abroad this summer. Betty and Jeanne Gravatte must have had a most interesting trip, to say the least, from the little we've been able to get them to admit.

Two co-eds were vainly endeavoring to squelch each other. Finally one of them, quite exasperated, blurted out, "You haven't had a brilliant thought since the Dead Sea was sick."

"There's many a strained muscle 'tween the Freshman and Sophomore years," say the freshman girls in the gym classes.

A Freshman reporter, on calling up S. A. E. house for Hatchet news, was greeted with the doubtful query, "Are you sure you're from the Hatchet?" At first she was very much insulted, but after due ponderance of the matter, she decided not to be angry, 'cause after all one shouldn't expect a mere freshman to understand all the ways of these popular fraternity men.

Walla Walla is dead. She was the Ford of Milton Dennis. A Chrysler hit her back end and when she stopped rolling she was no more. Milton's first words, as he fell out on the pavement, were "Where am I at?" The question was immediately answered, he was at Emergency Hospital almost as soon as he could say "Jack Robinson." Milton said today, when being interviewed, that it brought tears to his eyes even to think of Walla Walla.

Our poor Fresh co-eds were in a terrible dilemma at the regular Freshman chapel last week. After having listened to a representative of each of the G. W. sororities rave on at length about her particular sorority, the girls had great difficulty in deciding which one they would prefer to join.

One big-hearted girl said she'd settle the question by joining all of them.

During the past week, an Arabian fakir from one of the local theaters demonstrated his ability to act as a living pin-cushion before members of the Medical School faculty and students. So far, no applications have been received to duplicate this feat.

One of our fair co-eds recently remarked that her idea of a good joke was to hear a negro singing, "Bye, Bye, Blackbird."

Mr. Bement, English instructor, must feel that his professional dignity has reached a low ebb. This would seem to be the case, anyway, from an incident which happened during the Freshmen elections last Friday. Mr. Bement had just finished a lecture to a quiz section of Freshmen rhetoric and was about to leave Corcoran Hall, when three electioneers rushed up and tactfully inquired as to which ticket he was "lined up" with. After kidding the "heelers" along for several minutes, Mr. Bement divulged his identity. It is said that the female member of the trio faded away without a whimper.

The office force in the Registrar's office tells a funny one this week. It seems that a student came in to inquire if his lost hat had been in. The clerk answered, "No, but it probably will be in a few days." The student turned to leave, mumbling something to himself. The clerk, thinking she had not been understood, repeated, "It probably will be turned in, in a few days." It appears, however, that the student's mumbling was to the effect that he probably would lose his head next, and he was evidently rather shocked to know that it "probably would be turned in, in a few days."

The stag at eve

THIS fellow missed out on a heavy date tonight by the close margin of one phone-call. But don't waste pity on him. He has his jimmy-pipe and a tidy red tin of Prince Albert... grand little pals in time of stress.

When that cool, comforting smoke comes curling up the pipe-stem, troubles evanesce with every puff. For P. A. is The National Joy Smoke in fact as well as phrase. Cool as a money-lender. Sweet as a check from home. Fragrant as a pine-grove on a damp morning.

You'll like Prince Albert better than any other tobacco you ever packed into a pipe. You'll like the friendly way it treats your tongue and throat. You'll like the way it helps you over the rough spots. Buy a tidy red tin today and see!

HARRIERS ENTER RACE IN PHILLY

Good Showing Expected From Willett and Baker, Main Stars

3-MILE MEET ENDS IN TIE

Upper-Class and Frosh Teams Run as Feature of G. W. Ursinus Game.

Tomorrow the George Washington harriers journey to Philadelphia to participate in the Junior Cross-Country National Championship race, being run in connection with the Sesquicentennial.

They enter with one man, Hurd Willett, who according to dope should finish with the first ten, and another, Wilbur Baker, who should come in with the first twenty. Manager Dennis has designated George Martin, track manager of last year, to accompany the team. Captain "Domy" Domigan is unable to make the race, and Willett will act as captain. Other members of the team are Pomeroy, Brown, Fugitt, Johnson, and Matluck. Six miles will be the length of the course, and the opposition will include fifty of the best universities and colleges of the country. The meet is under the auspices of the A. A. U.

Willett Leads.

In preparation for the race a three-mile run was held between halves of the Ursinus game Saturday, the upper-class and frosh teams competing. It resulted in a tie, 18 to 18. Hurd Willett of the upper-classmen, led the field, covering the distance in 15 minutes, 1-15 seconds, and Baker, of the frosh, was second. Pomeroy, frosh; Brown, upper-class; Fugitt, frosh; and Johnson, upper-class, finished in the order named. Rosen and Matluck did not finish. Rosen, dropping out first, chalked up eight points against the freshmen, and Matluck, next to quit, seven points against the upper-classmen.

Sherman Johnson burst his feet during the race and probably will not be able to make the trip to Philadelphia.

PROF. ELMER KAYSER ATTENDS MEETINGS

Professor Elmer Louis Kayser, Director of the George Washington University Summer School, recently returned from Chicago, where he attended the meeting of the Association of Summer School Directors. The University of Chicago and Northwestern University were hosts to the association, the meeting being held on Friday, October 29, and Saturday, October 30.

Chief among the subjects discussed were the length and arrangement of the sessions, the maximum amount of credit allowed, emphasis on graduate work, methods of advertising, and formation of departmental budgets.

Membership in the Association of Summer School Directors is held by the thirty principal schools in both the United States and Canada. Officers of the Association for the coming year are: Director Elliff of the University of Missouri, president; Professor R. H. Jordan of Cornell University, secretary; Director C. H. Weller of the University of Iowa, statistician. The 1927 meeting will be held at Cornell University.

MOOREHEAD-WALKER TENNIS FINALISTS

Last Year's Champion and Runner-Up to Clash Again For Title In Near Future.

Phoebe Moorehead, 1925 tennis singles champion of George Washington University, and Frances Walker, runner-up the same year, will clash again for the 1926 title. Both contenders have had an up-hill battle and the scores of their previous matches promise a hard fight for the championship.

Miss Walker advanced to the finals by a victory over Louise Omwake, 6-0, 6-3. In eliminating Elizabeth Chickering, 5-7, 6-3, 9-7, Saturday, Miss Moorehead had a real fight.

Previous round results were as follows: Phoebe Moorehead defeated Mary Ryan 6-1, 6-1; Elizabeth Chickering won over Miriam Davis, 7-5, 7-5; Frances Walker defeated Louise Murphy, 6-0, 6-1, and Merla Mathews, 5-7, 6-1, 7-5.

URSINUS SET BACK BY G. W. ELEVEN SATURDAY

The longest pass of the afternoon was the opening heave of the second half and was good for 43 yards. Sapp was the passer and Lopeman received. Rivaling this pass in length was one thrown just as the fray opened, good for 38 yards, and another coming in the second half, which netted 35 white lines. Stehman to Sapp formed the combination on the first and Sapp to Van Meter tells the tale of the second.

That the Buff and Blue team was clearly the best and should have won by several more touchdowns is shown by the fact that the locals made 22 first downs during the fray to 7 for the invaders. Three of the latter's 7 were made within the last few minutes of play.

Gain 180 Yards.

The Hatchette backs gained a total of 180 yards during the game on line plays and end runs, while all the distance to the credit of the Collegeville boys in this method of attack is 52 yards. The Ursinians gained an additional 28 yards on eight attempts at the forward passing game, four of which were completed, and had one intercepted. This gave them a total of but 80 yards during the entire game as compared with 412 yards made by the Crummen.

Play opened with Schell booting the oval to Stehman, who carted it to his 35-yard line before being downed. A spectacular forward pass, Stehman to Haun, netted 38 yards before the visitors realized they were playing football. Another pass was good for 6 yards and Sapp added the necessary four by a stab at the line. Another pass, Coleman to Henry Sapp, put the ball on the Ursinus 4-yard line.

Sapp and Coleman made three and nine-tenths of the remaining four yards, but Ursinus refused to budge further and they recovered the ball on downs. Moyer getting off one of his weird kicks to put them out of danger. Stehman returned the punt, but G. W. lost on the exchange and the visitors had the ball on their 30-yard line. Erb got 9 yards on a neat stab, but broke his shoulder on the play.

Ursinus could do nothing with the G. W. line, so Moyer lifted a punt and one of his teammates covered it on the G. W. 10-yard line. Sapp succeeded in fumbling on the next play. Haas recovering for Ursinus. After futile attempts to advance the ball in the orthodox method, the visitors resorted to a placement kick from the 23-yard line that netted them three points. Schell did the booting with Moyer holding the leather.

Stehman Scores.

Soon after this, Ursinus received a 15-yard penalty for holding. Stehman added 20 more around right end. Haas finally bringing him down. A criss-cross pass, Stehman to Sapp, netted 20 yards, after Allshouse had blocked out a would-be tackler. Lopeman added a first down. Stehman went to the 2-foot line. Lopeman got one foot of the remaining distance, and Stehman dove over Athey for the touchdown. His attempted drop-kick was blocked by a deluge of black-jerseyed linemen.

Several additional passes were thrown during the remainder of the half. Mink intercepting a long one on his 25-yard line as the half ended.

The Hatchmen attempted to pull an inside kick as the second half opened, but it didn't work and Ursinus got the ball in midfield. Ursinus got one first down, then punted outside on G. W.'s 30-yard line. Stehman returned the punt. The Ursinians worked a trick pass, but Lopeman got the receiver after a hard try. Moyer kicked for a touchback. Sapp then pulled a nice broken-field run for 13 yards. A pass, Sapp to Lopeman, netted 43 yards more. A line play and another pass took the oval to the 18-yard line. After allowing Sapp 5 yards, Ursinus held and recovered the leather.

Moyer Punts

Moyer proceeded to punt for a gain of over sixty yards under his goalposts. Sapp then essayed another long pass on the fourth down, but Moyer wisely intercepted it. Instead of knocking it down, costing his team 30 yards, Sapp intercepted an enemy pass on the next play. Henry then uncorked a heave to Van Meter, who was playing on the end of the line at the time, good for 35 yards, as the quarter ended.

Floyd got a first down, then recovered one of his teammate's fumbles. G. W. tried a pass for touchdown, but Lopeman and Harris got in each other's way and the ball went over the goal line, giving it to Ursinus on the 20-yard line. Sapp received Moyer's kick and proceeded to throw three passes, good for ten yards each. G. W. now had the ball on the Ursinus

UPPER CLASS TEN WINS HOCKEY TILT

FRESHMEN ARE OUT FIRST

Alice Massey, Mary Ewin and Louise DuBose Are Stars of Game

Friday the Junior-Senior women's hockey team captured the interclass title by defeating the Sophomores, 3 to 2. This was the second time the Sophs met defeat at the hands of the Junior-Seniors, the first clash ending 4 to 0. The Freshmen were worsted by both teams, scoring only once against the Sophomores, who made six goals; and being completely overwhelmed by the Junior-Seniors, 7 to 0.

The Sophomores and the Junior-Seniors in the first game of the series played the best hockey. Although no remarkable stick work was done, fairly good team work and passing were evident. Alice Massey and Mary Ewin of the Junior-Senior team and Louise DuBose, halfback for the Sophs, were the stars of the game.

In the second game of the series the Frosh forward line, although greatly handicapped by the absence of two players, did some very good work against the Sophomores, who scored six times to the one tally made by the first-year team.

Against the Junior-Seniors the Freshmen had eleven players, but failed to score on the upperclassmen. The playing of Effie Wade, freshman, and Alice Massey, senior, was particularly good.

The line-up is as follows:

Juniors-Seniors	Sophomores
H. Miller	L. W. ... M. Alverson
G. Roe	L. I. ... M. Crouch
E. Valden	C. F. ... A. Graham
A. Massey	R. I. "Jimmy" Cate
E. Hastings	R. W. R. Greenwood
M. Ewin	L. H. ... M. Knapp
V. Robb	C. H. ... E. Stewart
M. Huntzberger	R. H. Louise DuBose
R. Jackson	L. F. E. Zimmerman
B. Brandenburg	R. F. ... M. K. Lutz

G. W. CLUB PLANS HOP

Plans are being made by the Men's G. W. Club for the annual football hop to be held in the gym the night of December 2. George Martin has been appointed chairman of the committee to handle the function this year.

At the Walter Camp Memorial game against Ursinus at the Griffith stadium last Saturday, members of the club served as ushers.

The club announces that the yearly interclass track and field meet will be held as usual this spring.

15-yard line. Sapp slipped down on an attempted end run, and two stabs at the line failed to give the required distance.

Sapp received Moyer's punt on his 45-yard line and tried three successive passes, losing 10 yards in penalties for his efforts. He then punted to Moyer.

It was at this time that the Ursinus team opened its only real attack of the afternoon. A pass, Jeffers to Moyer, got 7 yards, and Mink made it a first down. A pass to Faust netted 9 yards and Jeffers got a first down. Line play was unsuccessful, so Jeffers attempted another pass, then crossed his field by running for 10 yards. Schell then attempted to tie the score with a placement kick, but the entire G. W. line was through on him, the ball bounding off of a Buff and Blue jersey and going up the field. Perry took it on the run, but an Ursinus back just managed to grab his heel after he had gained 33 yards. A pass, Sapp to Allshouse was good for 10 yards as the game ended.

Sapp Outstanding.
Outstanding in the afternoon's work for the Colonials was the backfield play of Captain Sapp. He ran the ball with rare judgment and was uncanny at forward passing. Floyd, a new figure in the backfield, played bang-up game, Stehman, Coleman, and Harris did good work, while Lopeman seemed the best of the Crum quarterbacks.

In the line Herndon Athey was a tower of strength. The work of Viethmeyer, Hotel, Toler and Van Meter also stood out. Carey appeared the best of the ends, with Allshouse and Perry rushing him for honors.

"U. S. Should Remain Aloof," Says Dr. Hill

Political Science Teacher Attended Sessions of League of Nations and World Court.

Dr. Charles E. Hill, who last month attended the sessions of the League of Nations and World Court as a guest of the Carnegie Endowment Fund for International Peace, returned strengthened in his conviction that the United States should remain aloof.

Prof. Hill sets forth his impressions of the League as follows:

"From a brief observation of the council at work, of the assembly in session, and from listening to nearly all the chiefs of section of the secretariate, I found no evidence of the League of Nations possessing the attributes of a super state. The League is weak."

Professor Hill attended six sessions of the World Court. Of it he says: "Their sole task was that of passing upon the reservations of the United States in adhering to the court. The delegates recognized that the United States is a power of the first rank and is entitled to all privileges as such."

STELLA RANDOLPH WILL ADDRESS HISTORY CLUB

Miss Stella Randolph of the class of '23, who taught last year at Constantinople Woman's College, will address the History Club at their next meeting, according to Ora Marshino, president of the organization.

Miss Randolph's subject will be, "Constantinople Under the New Regime." The meeting is said to be of especial interest to both history and political science students.

The body will assemble at 8:15 on Tuesday evening, November 16, in Room 27 of Corcoran Hall. It will be open to all students of the University and their friends.

WINES AND BEER PLEA BEATEN BY NEGATIVE

Columbian Debaters Vote Against Proposed Modification; Debate Schedule is Announced.

The question debated before the Columbian Debating Society at their regular meeting in Corcoran Hall last Friday evening was, "Resolved, that this House favors the modification of the Volstead Act to permit the transportation and sale of light wines and beer."

The affirmative side of the question was upheld by H. Spitzer and B. Guidroz, the negative by S. Spitzer and N. Faulker. The decision was awarded to the negative team by a very close vote.

The following schedule of debates has been adopted. For the next two months: November 12—"Resolved, that this House condemns the policy of extra-territoriality in China as a crime against civilization." Affirmative: H. Spitzer and Guy Anderson. Negative: Wroe Alderson and G. E. Weigle. November 19—"Resolved, that this House favors the adoption of a more liberal divorce law for the District of Columbia." Affirmative: W. F. Williamson. Negative: Leo Bender.

Direct Primary Issue.

December 3—"Resolved, that this House believes that the direct primary has been a failure, and favors a return to the convention system of nomination of candidates for office." Affirmative: L. R. Romjue and Ray Carleton. Negative: Burt V. Guidroz and Charles Laughlin. December 10—"Resolved, that this House favors the immediate acknowledgement of the independence of the Philippines." Affirmative: S. Spitzer and Alfred Nazareno. Negative: Aureliano Arsenio and McPherson Beall. December 17—"Resolved, that this House favors the recognition of the Soviet government of Russia." Affirmative: Ray Harris and Burt V. Guidroz. Negative: W. S. Simpson and Nelson Faulkner.

The Columbian Debating Society holds its meetings every Friday evening in Room 17, Corcoran Hall. The meetings are open to the public.

PROF. DOYLE SPEAKS BEFORE DIONYSIANS

At the meeting of the Dionysians, October 3, Professor Doyle spoke on the "Golden Age of Spanish Literature."

After the lecture, informal try-outs for positions on the club's annual production were given. Professor Croissant will speak at their meeting, November 17, in the rehearsal room at Stockton Hall. His subject is "Some Seventeenth Century Dramatic Developments."

PROF. RAGATZ SPEAKS

Professor Lowell J. Ragatz, of the Department of History, gave a number of interesting sidelights on student life in French universities last Friday, when he spoke before the Cercle Gallia. Professor Ragatz spoke particularly about the University of Grenoble and its courses especially planned for foreign students, and traced the development of this idea since its inception 30 years ago.

DOYLE TALKS ON DRAMA

Speaking at the Dionysians Club, November 3, Dr. Henry G. Doyle told of the golden age of Spanish drama. Thursday Professor Doyle will address the Delaware State Educational Association, Dover, Delaware, on the modern foreign language study.

Albert Hatton Gilmer

PROF. GILMER TO GIVE LECTURES

Professor of Drama From Tufts College to Conduct Drama Series

SUBJECT MODERN DRAMA

Dramatic Association Sponsors. Three Talks on November Fifteenth and Sixteenth.

Albert Hatton Gilmer, Professor of Dramatic Literature in Tufts College, will present, under the auspices of the Dramatic Association, a course of three lectures on "Modern European Drama," in Corcoran Hall, on Monday, November 15, and Tuesday, November 16.

The first lecture of the series will be given on Monday, November 15, at 11:15 a. m. when Professor Gilmer will speak on Stage Settings in the Modern Manner Abroad, and Prominent Personalities in the World Theater. The second lecture will take place at 8 p. m. of the same day when he will give an illustrated lecture on the interesting topic of "The Drama Today in England, France and Germany." Professor Gilmer will close his course on Tuesday evening, November 16, with an illustrated lecture on "The Drama and Stage Being Made Over in Moscow and Riga."

Interest in Drama.

Professor Gilmer has been a student of the drama for 25 years, and his interests and work have taken him from the University of Chicago and Harvard College to the University of Munich, and last summer led to his studying with Professor Gilbert Murray at Oxford University. During 1925, Professor Gilmer visited many of the capitals and leading theatrical centers of Europe, London, Paris, Berlin, Riga, Moscow, Prague, Budapest, Athens, and Rome, where he spent much time in observing the stagecraft and creative dramatic work going on in foreign theaters.

While in the leading theatrical centers of Europe Professor Gilmer had the opportunity of meeting the leading personalities of the stage, such as Jones, Craig, Reinhardt, and others, of whom he will give many personal glimpses. While studying the European Theatre, Professor Gilmer collected many interesting and instructive illustrations of stage settings and theater personalities with which he illustrates his lectures.

The George Washington Dramatic Association feels fortunate in securing the services of so great an authority on the drama as Professor Gilmer. Students will be admitted to all lectures upon presenting their activities card at the door. Other persons who are interested in the drama will be admitted for $1 for the entire course.

POETRY CLUB ELECTS

Five new members were elected to the Modern Poetry Club at its last meeting November 2. They are: Eleanor Hall, Billie Wright, Margaret Moreland, Mary Ann Westcott, and Evelyn Fletcher.

Ruth Newburn was also elected to fill the vacant office of the Vice-President.

In the future, the club will hold its meetings on the first Tuesday of each month.

FOUND.

Found, at the University Cafeteria, a penknife, evidently a souvenir. Owner may recover by describing knife to Miss E. P. Wild, Room 27, Corcoran Hall on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday from 5 to 7 o'clock.

AVUKAH TO MEET.

ORCHESTRA IS PICKED FOR FRAT TEA DANCE

Event to be Held in Corcoran Hall After C. U. Game Thanksgiving Day.

Elmer Brown's orchestra will furnish music for the Interfraternity Thanksgiving dance, to be held Thanksgiving day after the Catholic University game, from 5 until 8. It was announced at the Interfraternity council meeting held Sunday morning at the Acacia house.

This is the same orchestra with which Elmer Brown played in New Haven this summer, and which made a very definite hit. Among the pieces which will be played are selections from "Just a Kiss." Each fraternity is pledged to sell ten tickets to the dance, and should have little trouble in disposing of them.

Admission One Dollar.

A floor committee made up of one member from each fraternity will be present. Admission is $1 per couple. Plans for the University Varsity are fast taking shape, it was announced, and it is expected that every fraternity will furnish an act. All fraternities were asked to have their banners at the gymnasium for the County Fair Friday night. The next meeting of the council will be held Sunday, November 21, at the Theta Upsilon Omega house, 1765 Q Street northwest.

FRAT COURT CONTESTS APPROACHING THE END

a very consistent scorer, and plays a fine brand of basketball.

Kappa Sigma beat Acacia, 34 to 16, Wednesday night, and Phi Sigma Kappa beat Theta Delta Chi, 25 to 9, Thursday night. Loffer of the Phi Sigs showed his usual good form. Theta Delta Chi has not shown up this year nearly so well as last year, when played in the finals. A game between Sigma Chi and Kappa Alpha, scheduled also for Thursday night, was postponed indefinitely.

Sigma Nu beat Sigma Phi Epsilon Friday night, 34 to 18, Thurman Hill of Sigma Nu, a very brilliant player, doing most of the scoring, and Ketcham and Law running up most of the points for the S. P. E. team. Theta Upsilon Omega and Delta Tau Delta were also to have played that night, but the game will be played only if Theta Delta Chi beats S. A. E., so that T. U. O. may have a crack at the title.

Kappa Sigs Forge Ahead.

Saturday night Kappa Sigma enhanced her chances for the championship by trimming Sigma Chi, 17 to 10, Henry Sapp, who had earlier in the day played a stellar role in the Ursinus football game, was too strong for the blood of the Sig Sigs. Sapp, Popham, and Evans were the main Kappa Sigma players.

Games to be played this week are as follows: Monday, November 8, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Delta Delta Chi; Tuesday, Sigma Chi and Sigma Nu; Wednesday, Kappa Alpha and Acacia. Games between Sigma Chi and Kappa Alpha and Theta Upsilon Omega and Delta Tau Delta may also be played.

SOCIETY

The Chi Omegas and their guests turned Parisian last Saturday night when they joined in the revelry of an Apache party given in Elsie Talbert's attic. The Chi O's were masked as men and proved charming escorts for their guests.

AID ASKED FOR VICTIMS OF NEAR-EAST QUAKE

A plea for help has been sent to George Washington University on behalf of the victims of the recent disastrous earthquake in the near-East. Students are urged to bring any contributions to the cause to Dean Rose's office as soon as possible. Every garment and every dollar counts. Even half-worn articles are welcome, for the condition of the people is critical.

This plea was sent in the form of a telegram directly to President Lewis; he asks all students to consider the request seriously, for he feels sure that each one can spare something which will mean a God-send to these stricken people.

EPISCOPAL CLUB MEET

The Episcopal Club will hold its next meeting Thursday evening, November 11, at 8 p. m. in Corcoran Hall, Room 17. Members and all others interested are requested to be present as important business will be taken up.

CENTRAL CLUB TO MEET

The Central Club will meet on Wednesday, November 10, at 8 p. m. in C. H. 17. Mr. Miller, assistant principal, will speak. There is very important business to be taken up. All Centralites invited!

ARNOLD OF LAW SCHOOL FACULTY CLUB OFFICER

Prof. E. C. Arnold of the Law School was elected vice president at a recent meeting of the Faculty Club. Elections were held this time to fill the vacancy caused by the absence from the University of Professor Updegraff, who is at present at the State University of Iowa.

The officers of that organization for the year 1926-27 are: Prof. John Donaldson, president; Prof. E. C. Arnold, vice president, and Prof. Merle I. Protzman, secretary-treasurer.

"BIG TEN" IS TO DANCE AT HOTEL WASHINGTON

There are doubtless many students in George Washington who had former affiliations with one of the Big Ten schools, composed of Chicago, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin. Such students will be interested to know that the annual round up of the Big Ten will be held Saturday, November 20, at the Hotel Washington. Returns from the football games will be received, dancing will be on the program, and cats will be provided. $1.50 is the price of the tickets which may be procured from Professor Arnold or Mr. Upham of the law school.

THESE ARE DESERVING CANDIDATES

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

X SMITH W. BROOKHART, JR. — for Class President
Keenly interested and active in student affairs, well known and popular in Columbian College; member of Gate and Key Honorary Society, Troubadours, Sigma Chi Fraternity.

X ANNE McCORKLE — for Vice President
Anne is one of the most popular and deserving girls on the campus. She is a Phi Mu, is a member of the Girls' Glee Club and is a mighty hard G. W. worker.

X RUTH NEWBURN — for Secretary
We all remember Ruth for her brilliant work in dramatics last year, in the Vodvil and as Mollie Malone in "Just a Kiss." But that isn't half of it; she is manager of the Women's Debating Team, a wonderful girl. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

X BOB WILLIAMS — for Treasurer
Out for Glee Club, active worker in all school activities, Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Wednesday, November 10, is Election Day

ALL JUNIORS ARE URGED TO VOTE

(This advertisement is contributed by a host of friends who are desirous of seeing the best qualified and most deserving candidates at the head of the Junior Class.)

No student is complete without a Remington Portable

THE student who uses a Remington Portable Typewriter will tell you he couldn't get along without it, because it takes the drudgery out of writing up his lectures and preparing his reports and theses. Besides the time it saves, the Portable provides neater work than could possibly be turned out by hand. Profs are human, you know, and they appreciate and reward neat and legible work.

You'll find Remington Portables the handiest, fastest, and simplest to operate of all portables. It is the lightest (8½ pounds, net) and most compact portable (carrying case only 4 inches high) with four-row standard keyboard.

Can be purchased for $10 down and $5 monthly.
